

Your career awaits!

Eastern Aleutian Tribes is seeking qualified applicants for a Emergency Services Administrator.

Working together to promote healthy communities

Working collaboratively with the Medical Director, the Part-time Emergency Services Administrator provides the overall coordination and necessary oversight and planning of region-wide Emergency Medical Services (EMS) system in designated communities, as well as emergency services in all EAT communities.

The incumbent is an integral part of EAT's healthcare delivery; commitment and dedication to continuity and quality of care is imperative for success. Likewise, innovative and creative problem solving, collaboration and patience, and determination are competencies that help define the ideal administrator.

Join us!

This is a part-time position and located in Anchorage.

To compete for this position, candidates must possess:

- Graduate of an accredited medical or osteopathic school with MD, DO or equivalent degree.
- Successful completion of ACGME accredited Emergency Medicine Residency.
- Board certified in Emergency Medicine.
- Minimum of five (5) years in clinical practice in a primary care group, three (3) of which must have been in a leadership position.
- Board Certification in Emergency Medicine
- Licensed or license eligible by the State of Alaska
- Experience working with Tribal Health Organizations, Veterans Administration, or Indian Health Services is preferred.

For more information, contact Human Resources, (907) 564-2506. Candidates must submit a thorough CV and a completed employment application found on EAT's Careers Page, www.eatribes.org/careers.

Pursuant to PL 93-638, as amended, preference will be given to qualified Alaska Natives, American Indians and/or Eastern Aleutian Tribal Members in all phases of employment.